

SOURCE CODE

```
#include <iostream>
using namespace std;

/*Finals - Activity 2 - Create a program that will ask to input number values to the array. If the user input the word "END" it will display all the contents of array.
There is no declared array size and the program continues to ask to input a number in the array as long as you are not inputting the word "END".*/

int main()
{
    int numbers[100];
    int size = 0;
    string input;

    cout << "Enter Numbers (Type END to stop): ";

    while(true){
        cin >> input;

        if(input == "END" || input == "end"){
            break;
        }

        int num = 0;

        for(int i = 0; i < input.length(); i++){
            num = num * 10 + (input[i] - '0');
        }
        numbers[size] = num;
        size++;
    }

    cout << "Array contents are" << endl;
    for(int i = 0; i < size; i++){
        cout << "Numbers: [" << i + 1 << "] " << numbers[i] << endl;
    }

    return 0;
}
```

OUTPUT

```
PS C:\Users\Client\Documents\Activity Finals c++> cd 'c:\Users\Client\Documents\Activity Finals c++\output'
PS C:\Users\Client\Documents\Activity Finals c++\output> & .\'Finals - Activity 2.exe'
Enter Numbers (Type END to stop): 1 2 3 4 6 7 8 5 4 0 END Array contents are Numbers: [1] 1
Numbers: [2] 2
Numbers: [3] 3
Numbers: [4] 4
Numbers: [5] 6
Numbers: [6] 7
Numbers: [7] 8
Numbers: [8] 5
Numbers: [9] 4
Numbers: [10] 0
PS C:\Users\Client\Documents\Activity Finals c++\output>
```